

User should be able to delete an SSP. But before deleting an SSP a warning should appear asking if you are sure you want delete the SSP.

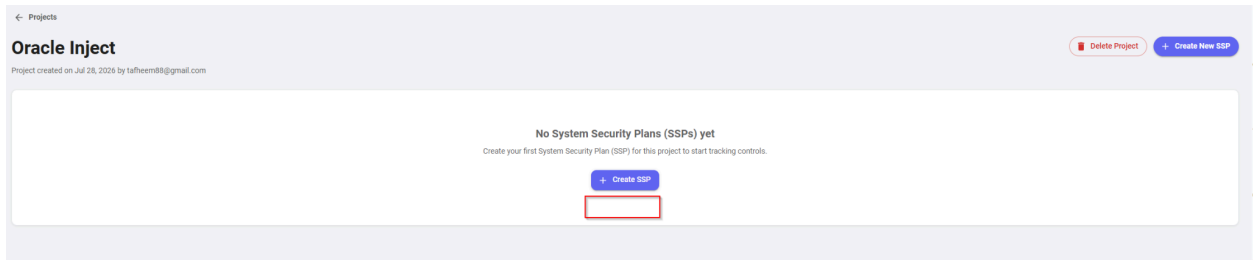

Take the number away

When clicking the view the controls family in the dashboard should be zero by default

By default the team intake Tracker should be empty

Create another button called Risk Assessment. That way security team has an option of creating a complete SSP or just a Risk Assessment